Call to Worship G. Warren
"God of the Ages"
Chancel Choir

*Call to Worship Teri Slemmons
Leader: The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

People: God does not deal with us according to our sins, nor requite us according to our iniquities.

Leader: What shall I render to the Lord for all this bounty to me?

People: I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.

Hymn #88
"All My Hope on God Is Founded"

Prayers of the People Richard Lumpkin
My brothers and sisters: be reconciled to God by the mercy of Christ; let us pray with confidence for the needs of the church and the world.

We pray for our spiritual and political leaders: may they have the humility to acknowledge their faults and the courage to atone for them.

We pray for Cherry Log Christian Church, that through its ministry, people may experience the love and mercy of God.

Deliver us, Lord, from every evil, and grant us today the peace that comes from forgiveness. When, in moments of weakness we have turned away from you, let the memories of your kindness be stronger than our feelings of guilt. With confidence we place our needs before you, who in loving kindness overlooks our faults and greets us
with a loving embrace.

Psalm Richard Lumpkin
"Psalm 32"

Hymn "Create in Me"

Create in me a clean heart, O God, that I might serve you;
Create in me a clean heart, O God,
That I might be renewed.
So fill me and heal me, and bring me back to you.
Create in me a clean heart, O God, that I might serve you.

Communion Prayers Barbara Ferer
Kay Vanderhoof

(All are welcome at this table. Please serve one another as the elements are passed, using words such as "the Bread of Life" and "the Cup of Salvation," and place the empty cup in the pew holder. Gluten free wafers are available in the plate for those needing them)

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory,
forever. Amen

ALL ARE INVITED TO GO FORTH AND SERVE THE LORD

* Invitation Hymn #714
"For the Fruit of All Creation"

(In response to God's Word, you are invited to join the pastor at the front of the sanctuary to make your confession of faith or to transfer your membership into this church family of faith.)

*Benediction Dr. David Griffin

*Choral Response #436
"Shalom to You Now"

(Guests are encouraged to attend the CLCC Fellowship Time in the fellowship hall. As you leave the sanctuary, turn to your right and the gathering space is at the end of that hallway.)

The stream flowing through our lives is from eternity to eternity. It is artesian. It is totally adequate. Everything we need is borne by that stream. Its origin is the realm beyond, and it carries infinite resources. In this space-time realm, conditioned as we are, the stream can seem to be a trickle. It seems puny against the drugs we're battling, against the divisions among us or the power of greed that fuels our economy.

When we're up against all the world's needs and lacks--the way we perceive life--the stream seems inadequate. But in fact, it is a powerful, surging, cleansing tide that purifies all it touches. It is a grace torrent. It flows irrespective of merit. It carries everything that a human being has ever needed--and could ever want. Whatever we need will flow by at just the opportune moment. Our problem is that we're not attuned to the stream. We don't see it. We're not even looking in the river's direction. Gordon Cosby
