

Voices OF CHERRY LOG

“A friend is one of the nicest things you can have, and one of the best things you can be.”
~Douglas Pagels

Zandra Benton

Born in FL, raised in Atlanta area; came to mountains after husband's death; lost mother soon after, “she was my best friend”; met Jason in 2011; professional career, legal assistant, partly working from home; part time bookkeeping for interior decorator; commutes to Atlanta 3 days per week

Enjoys cooking, kayaking, hiking, gardening, landscaping – anything outdoors; black cat named Spider

CLCC: “First visit we knew it was the right place—it felt right. Everyone welcomed us...so many great people. When we learned of the outreach ministries that ‘sealed the deal’ for me. We tried Celebrate Early and liked the time, but missed the traditional service.

Sue Moore

Born and raised in a wonderful cotton mill village of LaGrange (ask her)! Studied secretarial science at GSCW (shared class with Ann Doster); professional life: teaching, parenting, volunteering; lost husband 1995; Ray (their best friends) lost his wife, so they married as closest friends; share 5 children;

Enjoys outdoors, gardening (deer made her a “container gardner”); in church choirs entire life; enjoys one-day motorcycle rides – not long road trips; love animals, but with pets we “can’t ride off in the sunset”

CLCC: captured by open hearts, open minds, open doors; “The day we became members was the most moving day of my life; now it’s our church!”

Peyton Peugh

She was dedicated to CLCC in the church on the hill in 2003. She was baptized at the church in 2010. Peyton is an 8th grader at Fannin Middle School and spends a great deal of time playing tennis and preparing to be on the high school team next year.

CLCC: Peyton says she has enjoyed growing up at CLCC and it feels like home. She loves: preparing and serving communion, meeting new kids in church, going to Tower Road to be with those kids, Georgia Meyer, Youth Assembly at Epworth by the Sea, friends at church, FYSH, church trips.

Gloria Hitt

Born in Seattle and grew up in Snoqualmie, WA. She attended the University of Washington and became a nurse. She moved to Georgia in 1968 and worked for Boeing Aircraft in their adhesive research division. She also worked at Cobb General Hospital in the Psychiatric Unit, then Fannin Regional. Gloria has volunteered with the clothes closet and in her spare time, loves reading.

CLCC: Gloria was coaxed into attending CLCC by her dear friend, Betty Gardin, and she loved it and felt that it was the friendliest church she had ever attended, so she joined around 2010.
