

Voices OF CHERRY LOG

“A friend is one of the nicest things you can have, and one of the best things you can be.”
~Douglas Pagels

Meet four more
CLCC friends here.

Feenie Midkiff

Born and raised in north FL near GA bend. Graduated (BSc. Home Ec.) Berry College and married Don 1958.

35-year teaching career in GA, Ind., VA, FL, 16 years in primary grades followed by 19+ years teaching Braille in GA Academy of the Blind, the most fulfilling teaching of all.

Hobbies: Gardening (passion); bridge; reading; family includes son, daughter and spouses; each have a son and daughter.

CLCC: Charter member, “when we found this church, I knew I could live in the mountains”; The inclusiveness, “We accept all who Christ accepts”, was the outstanding feature.

Larry Weis

Origins Western KY; Korean war as electronic spy in Asmara, Eritrea—life impacted by this experience (ask Larry). Business degree from U of IN in Louisville; married love of his life (38 years); Later, MA counseling and psychiatry.

48-year career in Human Resources beginning (railroad) in Atlanta. Significant national influence implementing the Civil Rights Act in employment.

Retirement: Earned MTh, Candler, preparing for Hospice Chaplaincy in 2006. Helped establish camp for abused and neglected children and recently, Career for Teens program.

CLCC: Good alternative to Unity Church (google it). Remembers Dr. Craddock’s first sermon in pavilion (ask him).

Close companion wolf dog, Wa’yah.

Tab Bomhard

Born in Piqua, OH, 1st atomic city in US. BA Education and Sociology, MS Learning Disabilities, Bowling Green State U.

Career(s): 7 years psychotherapy and counseling, psychiatric hospital; 20 years in nursing administration (instrumental writing Patients Bill of Rights); 10 years probation officer as mediator with parents and 1st time juvenile offenders; “One permanent thing in my life was/is working with people.”

Enjoys gardening; music; photography; stained glass; dogs.

Retired; He and Tim found home in mountains. Real Estate agent recommended CLCC where they found acceptance. Presbyterian background; Unity Chaplain; “God has played an important role in my life.”

Roxanne Neal

Born Maysville, KY; raised and educated in FL; retail sales many years; accountant, business responsibilities in cabin rental enterprise. Physical illness and near death experience changed life.

Vacationed in mountains with increasing frequency and eventually made it permanent home.

Enjoys reading, especially biographies; most fulfilling activity is serving others (proven by her service in CLCC).

She and Darlene wanted a house convenient for Aunt Jessie and Mom, Wanda; now have that home.

A fourth generation Disciple (born near Caine Ridge) wanted a DOC church and found CLCC. “Love the family atmosphere and acceptance of all who Christ accepts.”

