

Voices OF CHERRY LOG

Do you know the four faces on this page? If not, meet them today, and if so, you may learn something new. Each month our CLCC family ties grow stronger.

Sue Green

Journey: Born in Chatsworth, raised and educated in Chattanooga, then Miami, Atlanta, VA, Atlanta

Career: Delta, retired in 2000. Supervised building her house over 3 years before retirement.

Hobbies: Tent camping with young son at horse shows (he now lives in Delaware); avid reader of fiction and non-fiction; passion, yard work (spread 100+ bags of mulch this summer!), “playing in the dirt is as close as you can get to God.”

Avocation: Volunteer work during career as well as retirement, Special Olympics in Atlanta and Red Cross working with EMT unit, to name two of many. Motto: A humble heart keeps you close to God.

CLCC: Found this church in 2005 and has been involved in its ministries since then.

Jim Bunnelle

Journey: Indiana, Missouri, Massachusetts, Roswell, mountains (9 years ago, 2 years full time)

Profession: National sales manager, American Optical, “been in every major city in the world”

Retirement avocations: CASA (court appointed special advocate) volunteer; farming: in exchange for ‘learning to farm’, assists 77-year-old neighbor to work a 13-acre garden; works with Feed Fannin; learning to can as a volunteer at Blue Ridge Cannery; cuts grass in back of church on Mondays

CLCC: Lutheran background. He and Karen felt a ‘hole’ in their lives and filled it at CLCC via Michael Brunson. Celebrate Early fits their Sunday schedule perfectly and they “love the people.”

John Morford

Journey: Born, educated in West Virginia, 3 degrees: Education, Counseling/Guidance; Industrial Management; lived in DE, OH, GA, SC, GA, My Mountain

Career: equivalent of HR in new business startups. Enjoys finishing furniture, heavy duty yard work (Dorothy does flowers), reads everything and favors history (knows David McCullough), but HR work has been his passion

Widowed after 49 years of marriage, met Dorothy on Elder Hostel trip to San Salvador. Their frequent travel explorations/expeditions include kayaking, hiking, cruises

CLCC: Evangelical background, DOC since 1971; spotted “Fred Craddock Drive” sign on Hwy 515 and did a U-turn; CLCC has been church home and place of active service for 8 years.

Sara Cox

Origins: Kennesaw, Marietta, Morganton

Education: Senior, Fannin County High School and Freshman Dalton State, concurrently! Why the hurry? “To get my life started.” Current plan, complete this year’s study then take 1-2 years for mission work in Australia.

Hobbies: painting, cooking (seen in spice aisle of Ingles reading grandmother’s cookbook)

Future: Service to others “Three years ago, at Christmount, God took over my life. I don’t have to go looking for Him because I have maintained that walk with God and He’s always with me. My life revolves around helping others”. Christian ministry/service is a commitment, but exact profession is not clear.
