

Voices OF CHERRY LOG

Our Family is a circle of strength; founded on Faith, Joined in Love Kept by God, Together forever.

- unknown

“Santa” Jack Senterfitt

Born in Lake City, Florida, Jack lived his early years Florida. He has two brothers and his parents instilled in him the importance of equality and justice for all. Jack went to Florida Presbyterian College (now Eckerd College) where he met Trisha. They married after graduating from college and Jack went on to Vanderbilt University to get his law degree. Jack was a civil trial lawyer and retired early in 2001 from a large law firm and ended his legal career working with the Lambda Legal Defense Fund. Jack and Trisha came to Cherry Log in 2007 when Trisha became the Executive Director of the Craddock Center. Jack enjoys spending most of his fall sharing Santa with kids all over North Georgia. Trisha and Jack came to CLCC because of Fred Craddock and Charlotte and Floyd Hale. Jack said that they love CLCC because of the shared values and the people.

Bob Lewis

Born and raised in rural Rochester, NY; university degree from U of OH, Bowling Green; entrepreneur from childhood; married to wife, Leslie, 37 years, father to four, grandfather to two; began professional work in radio in Atlanta, 1978 and added Real Estate to portfolio there; beginning 1992, self-employed: best described at www.mmelive.com and much more (ask him); lives in Goose Island; passion is music; plays harmonica at clubs across America (and CLCC!); loves to make things with his hands

CLCC: Seeking spiritual renewal and neighbors recommended CLCC; first visit included Charles Walls’ Bible class; encouraged and befriended by David Lakes; “This is it! And it’s a great church for an entrepreneurial spirit.”

Velda Harrison

Born in Clear Springs, MO; to IL age 14; early impacts on life: family working in sugar beet fields with migrant workers, meeting missionaries in youth camp, attending Campbellsville Baptist College (music/business), guidance to New Orleans Seminary where she met Billy; pastorate with Billy became mission field; professional work included teaching, secretarial, medical assistant; studied signing in Memphis and taught in Indianapolis; retired from Developmental Disability Ministries in Atlanta; 2 sons, 5 grands; enjoys oil painting, fishing, always singing (1st solo age 9);

CLCC: attracted by music, inclusiveness, sermons, felt accepted, participation in deaf ministry music and more; involved in Feed Fannin beginnings; board member, family ministries, Habitat for Humanity .

Zachary Kincer

Born in Marietta, GA, Zachary grew up in Cherokee and Fannin Counties. He graduated from Fannin HS. Zachary has two half-brothers that live in Michigan and elsewhere. He began his college career in nursing but was not able to complete the program because of medical issues. He is currently on full disability. Zachary lives with Marc Crowe (the two met online). They currently live in Canton to be closer to his doctors and to Zachary’s Mom. He found his way to CLCC in 2007 when Birdie Towle and Ben Kimzey told him about Cherry Log. He loves Cherry Log for the love and support they give him and Marc and the wisdom that he learns each time he comes to church. Zachary wishes to thank the whole congregation, who have been so supportive of them over the past few years.

