Pam Hatcher

Born and raised on a family farm near Wilmington, OH. Graduated from National School of Aeronautics in Kansas City, MO. Oldest of 4 daughters. Married Jerry Hatcher, a GA native. Have 3 sons, 2 granddaughters, 2 grandsons & a grandson due in January 2018. During her career she worked in various office positions including Delta Air Lines, as a para-pro in the Clayton County School System, as a bookkeeper at Marlin Pool Supply, and a small office supply business (Sailor Pen Co.) in Fayetteville, GA. Pam's favorite hobbies include watching the mountains from their living room, collecting antiques and junk, watching old movies, and listening to "Oldies" music. Bought a cabin in Cherry Log Mountain after Jerry retired from Delta Air Lines. Found CLCC from a neighbor and began attending at the "church on the hill." Pam loves CLCC because of the friendliness. Pam helps at the clothes Closet and is Jane Murray's right-hand worker with the Yard Sale.
