Joined CLCC when Kay became first secretary; sings bass in choir; property chair several years; enjoys golf, previous fisherman, gardener, carpenter, loves cooking!

Cathy Vincent

Born in Hays, Kansas but family moved around a lot as Dad worked in the oil industry. She grew up in TX, OK, and KS. Cathy attended Baylor University and received a B.S. in Dental Hygiene. Roomed with best friend, Peggy, who was Barry's sister. Married Barry in 1970 and they have one daughter, Marcy. After moving around, while Barry was in the service, settled in Peachtree City, GA and lived there for 17 years. Cathy worked as a Dental Hygienist her entire career. Bought a cabin in Cherry Log Mountain. They currently live in Goose Island Hideaway. Cathy loves to read, especially mysteries. She also loves to travel. Cathy and Barry looked for a small church and found Cherry Log Christian Church. As Cathy said, "Every time I come to CLCC, my soul is fed." Cathy is on the Music Committee and also is helping with the "Snack in a Backpack" program in the schools.
