Dick and Amy Ulrich

Dick, born in Wisconsin and Amy in PA, were raised in “nomadic” families – Dick’s father an Air Force career man, Amy’s father a Methodist minister. The “two became one” in 1984 in Florida.

Dick had a 10-year military career in the Special Forces, 1968-70 in Viet Nam, followed by a banking career, home building, then his first love -- state coordinator with transitioning veterans. He enjoys refinishing furniture; reads all things military and is active in the Special Forces organization.

Amy is a George Mason University graduate and retired from a 40-year banking career. Music is her joy. She grew up singing with her twin sister in church choirs, school chorales, her Dad’s radio show; plays flute and piccolo and graces the soprano section of CLCC Chancel Choir; loves walking, hiking club. She has 25 years volunteering in animal rescue and both enjoy their 3 adoptee dogs.

After vacationing in the mountains 10 years from Clearwater, they moved here permanently in 2019. They lost a son to cancer in 2020 and now have a daughter-in-law and 2 grands, one in college and one a recent graduate.

The Vincents introduced CLCC. “It was made just for me”, says Amy. Both enjoy the church and, she added, “Adam’s sermons have meant so much.”
