Ron Holliday-Davidson

Born Durham, NC, raised in Jamesville, NC. Earned MS Fine Art in Music, East Carolina U; Army (Veterinarian Service) 10 years, one year in Viet Nam; MS Nursing, USC-Irvine; 20 years as flight nurse; diagnosed with diseases of agent orange exposure then began work in Health Care Documentation until retirement. He and Mitch found cabin-by-the-creek in Murphy, NC.; has 2 daughters and 2 grandsons.

Used music talents (vocal and instrumental) semi-professionally; ordained in 1991; founded Christ Chapel of the Rockies and served as Associate Pastor.

CLCC: Listened to “every word [a rare occurrence] of Monica’s sermon online at Easter, ”and [we’re here]“; we find CLCC to be a close-knit COMMUNITY...with no judgment, no criticism...and I love the motto BeLove””; has deep desire to find a place to be involved in ministry.

Mitch Davidson

Born and raised in Roseau and Minneapolis, MN; 4-year advanced Army combat medic training ended when Air Force questionably spotted high blood pressure; became xray tech; studied computers at St. Thomas College and entered IT world for 13 years; joined Polaris Corporation in Minnesota as IT specialist, installing and training corporate computer systems globally, 22 years; retired 2020; met Ron online; has 2 daughters and 1 son; moved to Murphy with Ron 2017.

Enjoys cooking, especially baking, “tinkering with anything,” building, remodeling; BIG jigsaw puzzles; 3 dogs, 3 chickens, salt-water fish.

In church most all of life, heavily influenced by grandfather’s Godly, love-filled, ministering example; “I always search for a church wherever life takes me,” and on entering CLCC we “...felt a palpable warmth and love”; eagerly looking for his place of service here.
