Christa King

As a PK, born in Durham, NC, raised in First Baptist Church Epworth – literally! (Ask Christa); graduated Fannin High School, earned Lanier Technical College certification as Childhood Development Associate; worked with Fannin County Head Start 16 years; co-worker was Jeremy's Mom and their story begins...married in 2015.

Current title, CEO of The King's House; full-time care giver of Jeremy's Dad, complete invalid from debilitating stroke; mother to Evie, now in college, Lyla, and 5-year-old Thaddeus who's first year included open-heart surgery and a month living in Ronald McDonald House.

No surprise, enjoys cooking as a hobby, and reading mysteries when possible.

Faith journey started in Vacation Bible School and matured under Dad's preaching. Search for a family church ended with CLCC, "...our first Sunday here the sermon hit all of us..."

Jeremy King

Born in San Francisco to a military family, a determined and committed Mom planted his roots firmly in Morganton while maintaining family ties! Graduated from Fannin County High School; earned BS Sports Medicine, Valdosta State University; began work in orthopedic clinic; FCHS requested that he establish a Sports Medicine program; during his 10 years at FCHS as athletic trainer, teacher of health care and anatomy, he has earned MS Education, MS Adult & Career Education; currently working on Specialist in Teacher Leadership, all at Valdosta State U.

Main activities, learning and family time; he and Christa share 3 children, Evie, Lyla and Thaddeus.

Having children motivated the desire to find a church “that would show them the good side of [being Christian] and teach them that Jesus...loved unconditionally...without exception.” CLCC friends persistently invited them. “Our first Sunday [in CLCC] was our ‘God Moment’.”

Thaddeus King, son of Jeremy and Christa

Evie Wells

Born in Canton, Evie lived in Epworth until 5th grade then in Morganton ‘til graduating from Fannin High School 2021. She begins her 3rd year at Valdosta State University studying English and Criminal Justice. Already in Junior year studies, she begins an internship with the Valdosta District Attorney, a serious asset to plans to enter law school on completion of her undergraduate work. Academic studies will continue along with the internship!

Hobbies include reading (mysteries & sci-fi); collecting and building Lego structures

Evie’s faith journey began very early “with the example set by my [preacher]Grandad who loved everyone.”; at CLCC, “I feel so welcomed...everyone is so genuinely kind...the sermons are amazing!”
