Born in Augusta, GA, raised and educated in Hephzibah, GA; earned AA in Education from Young Harris then BA Education from University of Georgia; thirty two years of elementary school teaching included Hephzibah; 3 years in Stuttgart, Germany (with life-time friend, Becky Walls), Jacksonville and Lake City, FL , back to Hephzibah, Atlanta, and East Fannin, Blue Ridge (9 years). Currently employed as Teacher Support through Board of Education, Richmond, County; commutes to CLCC.

Church history, UMC; (Charles Walls was her pastor); first attended CLCC at a wedding and thought it, “a beautiful place”; later influenced by Becky and Charles to become a part of the church, a highlight being a part of the team going to Kenya where she worked with teachers in addition to building widows’ housing, “an experience both heart-breaking and hopeful...the people are always in my mind and heart.” “[CLCC is] one of the most welcoming churches I’ve ever been to...everybody from everywhere is welcome!”
