Mike and Donna McGinn 07/23

Mike born Boston, MA, raised in Phoenix, AZ; Donna born Ohio, raised in Phoenix, AZ; met in high school, studied in Phoenix college; eloped; entered Arizona State U, Mike BA in Bus. Donna, biology; Mike employed by Martin Segal entire career, retired as Senior Vice President at age 55; Donna worked as orthodontist assistant, volunteer work with home for unwed mothers; became parents to 2 daughters; became involved with animal rehabilitation. Working from home, earned her Wildlife Rehabilitation License and their story is fascinating as entire family became deeply involved in this work which has continued. Have been in this area 18 years. Ask Donna for tales of parrots, raccoons, squirrels...

Family hobby, ski boat racing and all water sports; for Mike: professional level stained glass including teaching, fast cars; evolved into "animal softie"; Donna: soap-making 20 years; sewing for family as well as for fun. Both are proud grandparents of 2 granddaughters and 1 grandson.

From Episcopalian (Donna) and Catholic (Mike) backgrounds both began to feel they needed a church. Heard of CLCC, decided to give it a try and "felt at home when we walked into the church. Just feels like we belong here."
